Pursuant to the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct and the American Bar Association *Standards for Criminal Justice*¹, the Court HEREBY ORDERS as follows.

1. Lawyers and Law Enforcement Agencies and Officers

A. Lawyer conduct is governed by Colorado Rule of Professional Conduct 3.6. Pursuant to Standard 8-2.1, the provisions of Standard 8-1.1, which also governs lawyer conduct and is substantially similar to Colorado Rule of Professional Conduct 3.6, are also applicable to the release of information to the public by law enforcement agencies and officers. See also Gentile v. State Bar of Nevada, 111 S.Ct. 2720 (1991).

B. A lawyer or law enforcement agency or officer who is participating or has participated in the investigation or litigation of this matter shall not make an extrajudicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication if the lawyer or law enforcement agency or officer knows or reasonably should know that it will have a substantial likelihood of materially prejudicing an adjudicative proceeding in the matter.

C. Notwithstanding paragraph B, a lawyer or law enforcement agency or officer may state (1) the claim, offense or defense involved and except when prohibited by law, the identity of the persons involved; (2) information contained in a public record; (3) that an investigation of the matter is in progress; (4) the scheduling or result of any step in litigation; (5) a request for assistance in obtaining evidence and information necessary thereto; (6) a warning of danger concerning the behavior of a person involved when there is reason to believe that there exists the likelihood of substantial harm to the individual or to the public interest; (7) the identity, residence, occupation and family status of the accused; (8) the fact, time and place of arrest; and (9) the identity of investigating and arresting officers or agencies and the length of the investigation.

D. Notwithstanding paragraphs B and C, a lawyer may make a statement that a reasonable lawyer would believe is required to protect a client from the substantial undue prejudicial effect of recent publicity not initiated by the lawyer or the lawyer's client. A statement made pursuant to this paragraph shall be limited to such information as is necessary to mitigate the recent adverse publicity.

E. No lawyer associated in a firm or government agency with a lawyer subject to the preceding paragraphs shall make a statement prohibited by the preceding paragraphs.

F. Lawyers and law enforcement agencies and officers are further advised to review and refer to the comments following Colorado Rule of Professional Conduct 3.6 and Standard 8-1.1 for guidance as to what constitutes appropriate conduct. Matters considered more likely than

G. Pursuant to Colorado Rule of Professional Conduct 3.8(e), the District Attorney shall exercise reasonable care to prevent investigators, law enforcement personnel, employees or others assisting or associated with the prosecutor in a criminal case from making an extrajudicial statement that the prosecutor would be prohibited from making under Colorado Rule of Professional Conduct 3.6.

2. Court Personnel

Pursuant to Standard 8-2.2, court personnel shall not disclose, to any unauthorized person, information relating to this matter that is not part of the public records of the Court and that may be prejudicial to the right of the prosecution or the defense to a fair trial.
